Conversation 1:

Tax Package sent out in November:

Did any of these things happened to you, your adult age children, or your parents?

Why would I care if your marital status changed?

The way you are taxed changes

What are the three marital changes that can happen?

Married, Divorce, Widow

“If someone dies, do not do anything for 6 months because you’re not in an emotional state to be able to react” - No, just don’t go talk to someone selling annuities

Still get to file a joint return the year you lose your spouse

What would you regret?

Top 5 Regrets:

- Living to please people

- Not expressing feelings

- Not letting yourself be happy

- Working too hard

- Not staying in touch with friends

- How do these regrets relate to money & retirement?

- Use money as a tool & don't let money use you.

Conversation 3:

People with plenty of resources are getting caught without retirement

- *Pay yourself first

Statistics:

- 1 out of 7 adults are paying for 3 generations:

- Aging parents & kids going through college (student loans)

- Age 60-69 is the largest growing age for student debt

- Grant Soliven

MIT”

MetLife Study:

“Average cost to each individual female caretaker is almost $325,000 in lost wages, pensions, and social security & another $7,000 out of pocket”

*Check who the study group is

*People with an average income of $44,000 a year

Conversation 4:

Buying your first or second home

Have a checklist!

Book Recommendation: Checklist Manifesto

Do you have the cash to make the payment?

Based on payment not price

Are you pre-approved?

Process: Find income info, Average income amount, Check credit rate, Check amount of debt

Carry cost greater than monthly payment...

What is the carry cost?

Extra costs to take care of lawn, pool, etc

*Pay attention to more than just the initial costs

Just because you can make the payment, doesn't mean you should

Where are you going to live?

Joe's opinion: “Historically, if you're not going to live in a house for 7 years, don't buy it.”

Do your research, make sure that it can be resold & it is a good investment

*Pay attention your future, the tax base, the domicile. They make life easier!
